important it is for us to encourage children to read. He told us that literacy is essential to maintain freedom in the future as our democracy depends on it. We were encouraged to do anything and everything possible to develop learning habits in children to ensure their future. He spoke of various projects and invited our club to get involved. One, a rain gutter bookshelf installation this Saturday, Sep 30th, will be held at August Aherens Elementary School in Waipahu. Contact Dan Bent at 548-0080 or by e-mail, dan-bent@fairmediation.com for additional information about how you can help

CHIYOKO RETIRES

Long time Dot's employee and Honorary Rotarian, Chiyoko Naramatsu recently announced her upcoming retirement from Dots. Today was the last Rotary meeting she will be working. The Club recognized her for her service by giving her a certificate of appreciation and proceeds from passing the calabash. Enjoy your retirement, Chiyoko. We will all miss your pleasant smile and warm greeting.
